The meaning of the name : a man that repairs bones

It should be noted that in the South African context there appears to be little genealogical significance in persons spelling their names BOONZAAIER or BOONZAIER in that the spellings are frequently interchanged between generations and siblings. However, as a broad generalisation the former is used in the platteland-based Afrikaner group and the latter amongst the Anglicised group in Cape Town and vicinity. The spellings BOONZAAYER and BOONZAAÿER have essentially fallen away.

It has been pointed out to me on occasion that there are some inconsistencies in the information reflected on these pages. Gremlins in transcription aside, often the information accurately reflects that on the source documents. There are many potential reasons for these inconsistencies; amongst the most common I would suggest being human frailty, fallibility and fantasy.

The original joint will of Hermanus Dempers and Maria Johanna Sophia stated her names as being Maria Johanna Patrizia Coetzee; his death certificate has her names as Maria Johanna Patrizia and her death certificate as Maria Johanna Patrusa Koetzee. However, her birth and baptismal certificate from the Ned. Geref. Gemeente, Van Rhynsdorp (No. 28 of 3.5.1940) states her names as Maria Johanna Petrusa Kotzé do. Marthinus Petrus Johannes Kotzé and Maria Johanna Catharina Brand, born 1.11.1875 and baptised 23.1.1876). This all led to some confusion when settling the estate! Her estate was assessed at £229/6/2.

Johannes Hermanus died in a motor vehicle accident in Worcester, Cape. The widow had to sue the insurance company on behalf of her children for payment. The estate was assessed at £5311/6/3. She went on to marry Francois Jacobus Kriel who legally adopted the children on 8 March 1955. This marriage ended in divorce two years later, and an Order of Recession of the original Order of Adoption was issued on 25 October 1957, the children's surname thus reverting to Boonzaier.

Anecdotal evidence that Justus Willem Hendrick (William / Willie) Boonzaier was adopted in part explains the difficulty relating to finding any reference to him in family documents. Whether this is true, was a formal process in law, or that he was taken in by the family is unknown

Personally I think that he was the offspring of the relationship Wilhelm Petrus Boonzaier and Susanna Apollina GRUNDLER / GRUNDELER
