VICTOR FAMILY in SOUTH AFRICA

PROLOGUE

My interest in the Family Victor arises from research I conducted into the life of one Peter Stuart, former Chief Military Constable of Mafeking. In February 1905, he married Sr. Ella Sophia Victor in the hospital chapel of New Somerset Hospital, Greenpoint, Cape Town.

At that time, Sr. Ella Sophia Victor was one of 11 ward sisters and 39 nurses employed by New Somerset Hospital and working under the famous Matron J C Child (1903-1907). After three years training, aged 30 years, she was appointed a Staff Nurse in Bailey Ward in December 1900. She had passed the Colonial Medical Council Examination on 20 December 1900, receiving her certification on 4 January 1901.

Ella Sophia Victor, of Pearston, Eastern Cape, was born 6 February 1868 and died 18 January 1948 [MOOC 1479/48]. On 6 February 1905, she married Peter Stuart born 1868 Kirkmichael, Bonffshire, Scotland, the son of Alexander Stuart and Jane Mc Pherson. He died 2 May 1938. They had two children; Victor Stuart and Violet Stuart.

The New Somerset Hospital Nursing Register, kept by Matron Child confirms that Ella Victor hailed from Pearston, Somerset East, and gives her address as C Kotzé (Christoffel Andries Petrus Kotzé), Pearston.

Though there are certain to be many sources of information pertinent to the Victor Family in South Africa, given his time and logistical constraints, the author has only explored two resources, namely the State Archives Repositories, Cape Town and Pretoria.

The significant contributions of Margaret Nowak and Gavin Victor at gavin.victor@sita.co.za are acknowledged with thanks.

This should be seen as a preliminary communication and not definitive. Certain assumptions have been made which may prove erroneous. There is a further 15 page document of unallocated Victor Family members. Any contribution to expanding on, or correcting, the information here listed will be welcomed.

FAMILY TREE of the VICTOR FAMILY

Family Name : meaning literally “winner”, what was formerly a first name became a family name

1. Gerrit Victor b. Amsterdam, a sick-visitor m 16.1.1667 Christina (“Styntje”) VAN DEN BERG.

Gerrit Victor was born in Amsterdam, and was in the service of the V.O.C. in Ceylon, where his two children were conceived. In 1666, he arrived in the Cape of Good Hope as a sick-visitor. He was appointed a schoolmaster and conducted classes in an attic, thought to have been in the castle. He received pay of a quarter rix-dollar monthly for educating a child of a citizen or servant of the company. When ships called at port, the attic was converted to an inn and the children sent on vacation. Later he was accepted as a burgher; in 1677 headed the orphan chamber; in 1680 was registrar of marriages; he was standard-bearer of the citizens' guard and between 1678 and 1680 was deacon of the Cape church. In 1676, his wife got permission to establish a bakery and shortly thereafter he won a licence to establish a wine house. In 1681, he again went into the service of the V.O.C. and, as a result, was sent as a sick-visitor to Batavia. He returned the following year and resumed his trade in wine. By 1692, he was a well-to-do farmer capable of harvesting 100 bags of grain each season.

1.1 Cornelis Victor b. Ceylon ~ 26. 10. 1667 m. 8.8.1688 Cornelia Jacoba JUNIUS [sic : see note below] (b. Amersfoort)

Cornelis Victor and Cornelia Jacoba Junius created wills on 13 June 11699 [CJ 2597.54], 5 August 1702 [CJ 2649.68] and 20 March 1719 [CJ 2879.1]. She was illiterate and he too frail in 1719 to sign.

This differs from the detail published in “Genealogies of Old SA Families : III (S-Z) : VICTOR”, where the mother’s maiden name is given as JUNIUS and the husband is called Michiel BUYS. However, the information in the document [1709 7/1/1.96] is quite explicit as to the detail.

1.1.5.6 Maria Magdalena Victor ~ 31.8.1749 [\[1822 7/1/88.22, 23 & 24\]](#) (Will dated 5.9.1820 & 18.2.1822 & 8.8.1822) m. Georg Wilhelm HOPPE of Lunenberg
1.1.5.6.1 Jacomina Sophia Hoppe m. Jan Godlieb STEGMAN

The Hoppe family appears to have been quite well-to-do. The will of September 1820 is lengthy, elaborate in its detail and generous in the degree to which assets are distributed. It was filed 22 October 1822. The codicil of 8 August 1822 deals exclusively with the emancipation of the slaves in the family's employ.
